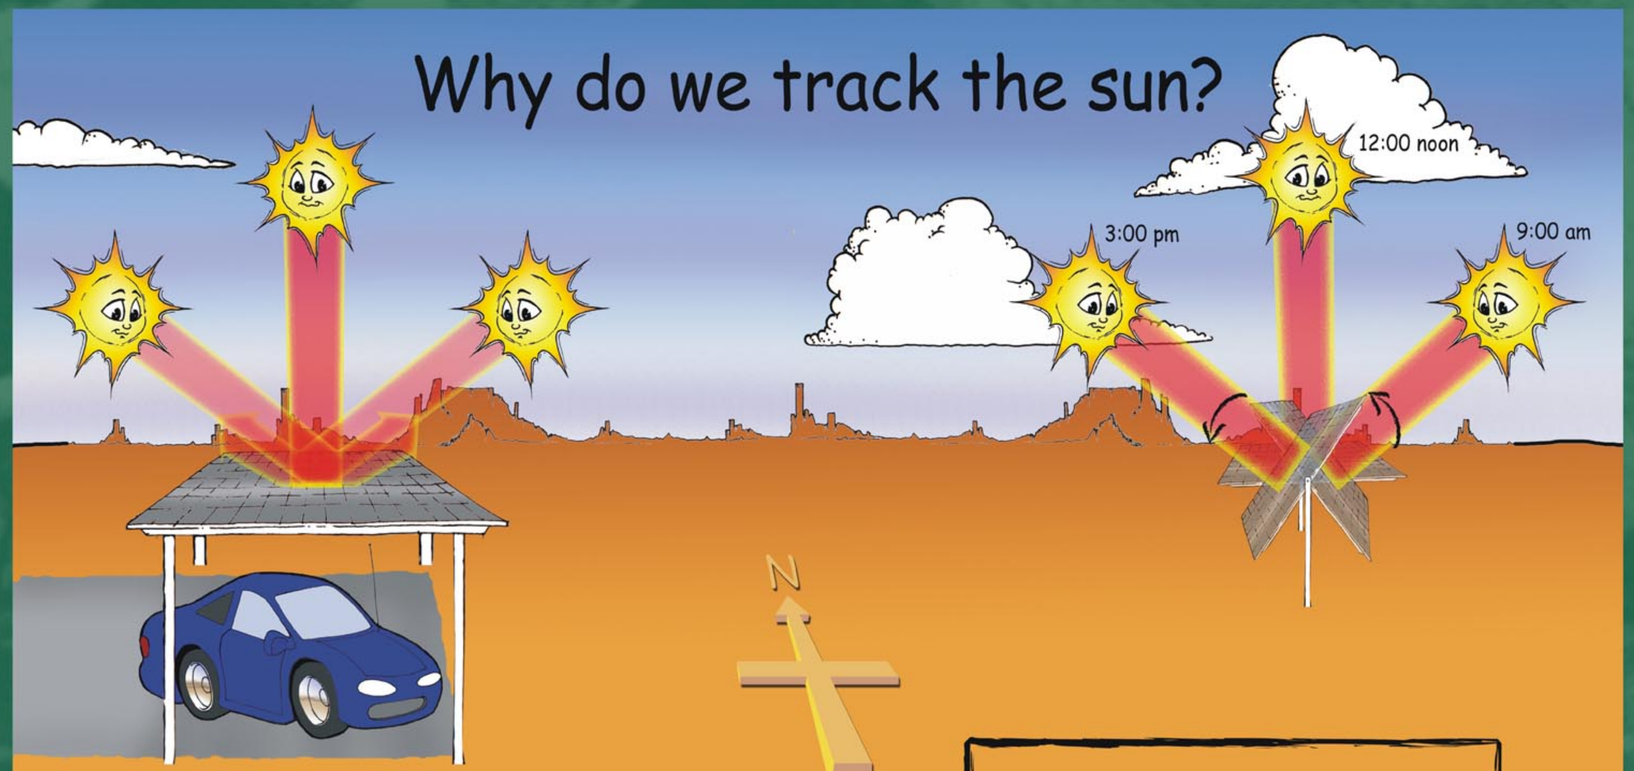
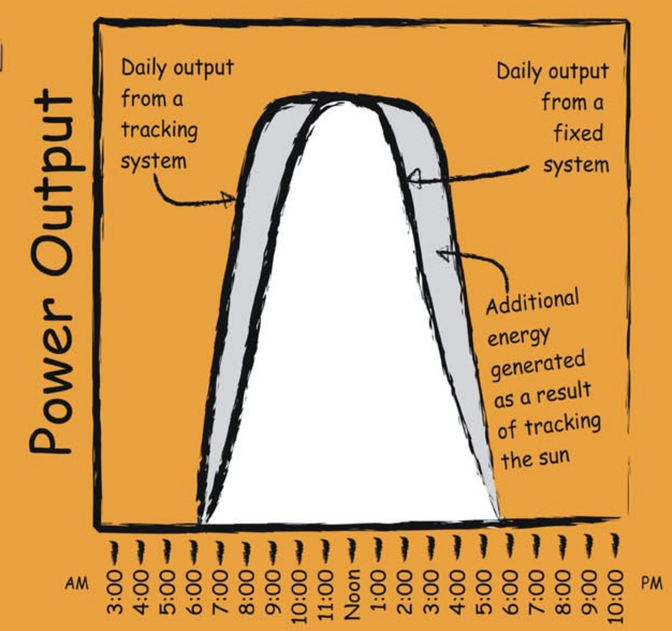
West Wetlands Solar Garden Information



-The most solar energy is captured by a solar panel when it faces the sun.

-By moving the solar panels so that they are always pointing in the direction of the sun -"Tracking the Sun" - we can maximize the energy output from the panels.


-A single axis tracking system can generate about 20% more energy over the course of a year than a fixed position system of the same size.