CONFIDENTIALITY. Neither Party shall disclose any non-public, confidential or proprietary information relating to the Reservation (the “Confidential Information”) to any third party (other than the Party's employees, lenders, counsel, accountants or advisors who have a need to know such information and have agreed to keep such terms confidential) without the other Party’s prior written consent. In the event that any Party becomes legally compelled (by deposition, interrogatory, request for documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process) to disclose any Confidential Information, the legally compelled Party shall give the other Party providing such Confidential Information prompt prior written notice of such requirement so that the providing Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with this Confidentiality provision. In the event that such protective order or other remedy is not obtained, the providing Party waives compliance with the terms hereof with respect to such Confidential Information.

Each Party acknowledges that the unauthorized disclosure of any Confidential Information may cause irreparable harm and significant injury that may be difficult to ascertain. Each Party therefore agrees that specific performance or injunctive relief, in addition to other legal and equitable relief, are appropriate remedies for any actual or threatened violation or breach of the provisions of this Paragraph, although neither Party shall be entitled to any special, consequential, indirect or punitive damages as a result of a breach of the provisions of this Paragraph, whether a claim is based in contract, tort, or otherwise.
