

Stay Safe

Tampering with APS-owned electrical equipment is a significant safety hazard and a criminal offense. Remember that non-APS personnel, including customers and third-party contractors, are not authorized to work on APS-owned electrical equipment (whether energized or de-energized), even when located on customer property.

For more information on electrical safety, please visit aps.com/safety.